• “A Camera on the Somme” 23 January – 21 March 2010

Ipswich Art Gallery, d’Arcy Doyle Place, Nicholas Street Ipswich Central

During World War I, brothers Jack & Bert Grinton from central Victoria found themselves serving in the trenches of France & Belgium. Ninety years later, more than 1,500 negatives & photographs taken by Jack and Bert were discovered inside a biscuit tin stored in a shed on the Grinton farm. This collection is a unique addition to the historical record. FREE ENTRY
