

Committee News

PSQ Committee met on Sunday 13 September in Toowoomba.

- Graham Burstow, who did a great job as chair of the Judges' Executive, has now finished his two year term. The new Chair is Stewart Parker.
- New understudy judges Russell Ensor of Kingaroy club has been approved. Please give him the opportunity to judge in Kingaroy and nearby.
- A formal numbering system was introduced for motions in PSQ Minutes.
- Barry Cheeseman had constructed a new letterhead for PSQ and a new application form for clubs.
- The Post Office box has been changed to a more user friendly location - PO Box 609 Beaudesert 4285 Qld.
- It was moved that the catchphrase "Alive and Clicking" be reintroduced.
- PSQ will continue to support the 'Queenslanders' and be more active in the promotion of this exhibition as well as seeking grants to get it into regional galleries.
- Gerard presented a list of discussion topics that he would like to see adopted over the next twelve months.
- Decisions made at committee meetings will appear in PSQ newsletters.
- Know your constitution. Part of the new constitution setting out the aims of PSQ starting at the beginning will be included in the newsletter each month.
- PSQ has decided to become 'greener' in their use of consumables. We encourage all clubs to think of the environment in all their activities.

Next Management Committee meeting is on Sunday 25 October at Ipswich Library

Judges' Forum & PSQ BBQ - Don't miss it!

Date: Sunday 29th November

Venue: DPI&F Complex, 203 Tor Street (just north of North St.), Toowoomba

Speakers: Graham Burstow, "Differences in Judging", Gerard Saide, "Judging Beyond the Image", Graham Harris, "Recognising Problems in Digital Images", Stewart Parker, "Breaking the Rules". Details will appear in the newsletter as they come to hand. Stewart Parker will conduct the Judges' Forum. Members are encouraged to have some input on topical issues for the open Forum.

Our PSQ Webmaster, Victoria Purdie, has been named one of the APS members of the month - September

PSQ Council Member Profile - Stewart Parker

Each month we will include a brief biography of Council members. Our first is Stewart Parker. Stewart is a Past President of Queensland Camera Group and currently chairs the Judges' Executive. He will hold this position for the prescribed two years, taking over from Graham Burstow. He has been a PSQ judge for almost four years and is keen for the Judges' Executive to provide maximum assistance to judges and clubs alike.
