History

With the growth in numbers of Queensland Clubs conducting monthly competitions and asking PSQA judges to evaluate their images there is increased responsibility placed on judges. Judge's comments have great influence on Club members and judges should be aware of this.

Authority

The Photographic Society of Queensland Management Committee delegate the day to day business of judges and judging to the Judges Executive. The Chairperson of the Judges Executive is to report to the PSQ Management Committee on a monthly basis.

All activity

1. It will be the responsibility of the Judges Executive to develop and implement By-Laws (Photography Judges' Manual) affecting judges and judging within PSQA's and Understudy's responsibilities.
2. Judges Executive hold meetings every second month by Skype or other methods. At one meeting per annual, preferably the Annual General Meeting, all judges are expected to attend, with travel costs of Judges Executive and PSQ President to be met by PSQ.
3. The PSQ President will be invited and expected to attend all meetings and functions organised by the Judges Executive.
