

Anne RUSSELL PhD LRPS AFIAP PSQA

Anne Russell first taught people how to use a camera when she was an Audiovisual librarian in the 1970s and the students could borrow a camera.

1981 – 2004 Lecturer in Education Faculty of Queensland University of Technology. Particularly interested in how teachers can use media to inspire students to become involved in their learning.

Member and President and Life member of Brisbane Camera Group.

An accredited judge with the Queensland Photographic Society with experience in judging a wide range of topics in Club, National and International Exhibitions. Previously a member of the Judges Executive Committee (a sub-committee of the PSQ).

Judge for audiovisuals, print and digital.

Recognise every individual will experience an image using their personal insights and personality style.

A little trivia information about Anne: She created a 6 projector with three screens slide show for her Doctoral Dissertation Defence in 1980.