My interest in photography has extended over decades- definitely long term. Over the years I've exhibited in numerous National and International exhibitions, gaining the awards AFIAP and FAPS along the way.

Since 1987 I've been an accredited Photographic Society of Queensland judge. As well as delivering commentaries on images, I have made numerous presentations to camera clubs on a range of photographic topics. In addition, I've presented lectures at state and national conventions plus judges' forums and training courses in Queensland and New South Wales.
